TAX ENGAGEMENT LETTER

Dear Tax Client,

We appreciate the opportunity to work with you. In order to avoid any misunderstandings, it is important that the terms of our mutual understanding be clarified.

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we require all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements.

We will prepare your 2018 Federal and State income tax returns from information you furnish to us. To assist you in gathering and organizing the necessary information required for the preparation of your individual income tax returns, we will furnish you with a tax organizer. Providing us with the completed tax organizer will help to ensure that you are not overlooking important information that may be necessary for complete and accurate returns, as well as may help to minimize our fees.

We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit. Accordingly, our engagement cannot be relied upon to disclose errors, fraud, or other illegal acts that may exist. However, it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information you provide, and we will inform you of any material, errors, fraud, or other illegal acts that come to our attention.

If you have taxable activity in additional state or local municipalities, you are responsible for providing our Firm with all of the information necessary to prepare additional applicable state and local income tax returns, as well as informing us of the applicable state and local municipalities.

We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as determined to be necessary for the preparation of the income tax returns.

In December 2017, the President signed into law the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act ("Tax Act" or "Act") which introduces the most significant changes to the U.S. tax system since 1986. With a few exceptions, the provisions are generally effective starting in the 2018 tax year. As such, your federal and state income tax returns for the 2018 tax year may look substantially different as compared to prior years. If you have any questions regarding the application of the Tax Act, please ask us for advice in that regard.

Tax Preparation Fees and Due Dates

Due to the complexities of the new Tax Act, unless we have agreed otherwise, our minimum tax preparation fee for your Federal and Home state tax returns is $750; however, more complex tax returns, dependent returns, additional state returns and extension calculations require additional time which will result in a tax preparation fee that exceeds $750. The additional time is billed based upon our hourly rates of $50 - $275. Our minimum tax preparation fee includes the following:

- One-hour conference* (in person, video or phone), if requested
- Federal and Home State income tax preparation with electronic filing and related emails, telephone calls, and correspondence

*Due to the complete overhaul of the tax forms, we strongly recommend sending information ahead of time and using your meeting time for draft tax return review and discussion. Multiple meetings and telephone conferences will increase the cost of your tax preparation.

The preparation and filing of the FBAR report, as well as any other forms required for foreign reporting, will be billed based upon our hourly rates.

The timeliness of your cooperation is essential to our ability to complete this engagement. Specifically, we must receive sufficient information from which to prepare your returns within a reasonable period of time prior to the applicable filing deadline. Accordingly, we must receive all information to prepare your return by March 30, 2019.

If we receive your tax information after March 30, 2019, we cannot guarantee that we will complete your returns by the required due date. If we have not received all of your information by March 30, 2019 and your return is not completed by the required due date, you may be subject to late filing and/or late payment penalties. You should keep in mind that this would be an extension of time to file the returns; however, any tax estimated to be due would need to be paid with the extension request. We assume no liability for late filing or late payment penalties. We do not file tax extensions for clients unless specifically requested to do so.

This engagement does not include any services not specifically stated in this letter. However, we would be pleased to consult with you regarding other tax matters, such as 2019 income tax projections, proposed or completed transactions, and for research in connection with such matters. Engagements for additional services may necessitate that we issue a separate engagement letter. We will render additional invoices for such services at our standard billing rates.

We continue to offer a $25 early bird discount for those clients who provide us with substantially all their information on or before March 16, 2019.

If we receive your information after March 30, 2019, there will be an additional charge of $100. Additional FedEx charges will also apply for returns received after March 30, 2019. Payment is due at the time we complete our tax preparation services.

Taxing authorities now require us to electronically file (e-file) all tax returns. While we are required to e-file all returns, you do have the right to "opt out" by choosing the applicable option at the end of this letter. Please note that unless you notify us of your desire to not e-file your return, we will prepare your returns to be e-filed.

Although e-filing requires both you and our Firm to complete additional steps, the same filing deadlines will apply. You must therefore ensure that you complete the additional requirements well before the due dates in order for our Firm to be able to timely transmit your returns. We will provide you with a paper or electronic copy of the income tax returns for your review prior to electronic transmission. You have the final responsibility for the tax returns and should review them carefully before you authorize us to e-file them on your behalf. We are not responsible for the disallowance of doubtful deductions or inadequately supported documentation, nor for resulting taxes, penalties and/or interest. We cannot transmit your returns to the taxing authorities until we have the fully signed authorization forms. Therefore, if you have not provided our Firm with your signed authorization forms by April 12, 2019, we will place your returns on extension, even though they might already have been completed. You should keep in mind that this would be an extension of time to file the returns; however, any tax estimated to be due would need to be paid with the extension request. We assume no liability for late filing or late payment penalties. You will also be responsible for any additional costs our firm incurs arising from the extension preparation.

We will use our professional judgment in preparing your returns. Given the magnitude of the changes the Tax Act contains, as well as some new concepts introduced in the law, additional stated guidance from the Internal Revenue Service, and possibly from Congress in the form of technical corrections, may be forthcoming. We will use our professional judgment and expertise to assist you given the Tax Act guidance as currently promulgated. Subsequent developments issued by the applicable tax authorities may affect the information we have previously provided, and these effects may be material. Whenever we are aware that a possibly applicable tax law is unclear or that there are conflicting interpretations of the law by authorities (e.g., tax agencies and courts), we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your return. In accordance with our professional standards, we will follow whatever position you request, as long as it is consistent with the codes, regulations, and interpretations that have been promulgated.

Under no circumstances may we sign a tax return with a tax position that has no reasonable basis. In the event you ask us to take a tax position that in our professional judgment will not meet the applicable laws and standards as promulgated, we reserve the right to stop work and shall not be liable to you for any damages that occur as a result of ceasing to render services. In addition, you will be liable for payment of any fee incurred to the date which service has ceased.

Your Responsibilities

You are confirming that you will furnish us with all the information required for preparing the returns. This includes, but is not limited to, providing us with the information necessary to identify (1) all states and foreign countries in which you “do business” or derive income (directly or indirectly) and (2) the extent of business operations in each relevant state and/or country. You should retain all the documents, books, and records that form the basis of your income and deductions. The documents may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. If you have any questions as to the type of records required, please ask us for advice in that regard.

Please note that the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) considers virtual currency (e.g., Bitcoin) as property for U.S. federal tax purposes. As such, any transactions in, or transactions that use, virtual currency are subject to the same general tax principles that apply to other property transactions. If you had virtual currency activity during the 2018 tax year, you may be subject to tax consequences associated with such transactions, and may have additional foreign reporting obligations. You agree to provide us with complete and accurate information regarding any transactions in, or transactions that have used, virtual currency during the applicable tax year. Please ask us for advice if you have any questions regarding the type of records required for virtual currency transactions.

Finally, please note that although our Firm will use our best efforts to ensure that your returns are successfully transmitted to the appropriate taxing authorities, we will not be financially responsible for electronic submission or other errors arising after your return has been successfully submitted from our office.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns, as well as retaining all documents necessary to support the data used in preparation of your tax returns. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You should retain all documents, canceled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. You are responsible for substantiating any amount upon which a deduction is taken on the return. The type of deduction taken will determine the specific substantiation needed.

The Affordable Care Act (“ACA”) added various new health insurance mandates, penalties, and credits. Our services in connection with this engagement are not designed to address the legal or regulatory aspects of your compliance with the Affordable Care Act. In preparing your individual tax returns, we will rely solely on the information you provide us regarding the ACA mandates and you agree to accept full responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of this information, as well as your compliance with the ACA. As such, we will not be responsible for any taxes, penalties, or interest that may be assessed.

Foreign Accounts

Please note that any person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the United States (includes individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts, and estates) having a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, bank accounts, securities, or other financial accounts in a foreign country having an aggregate value exceeding $10,000 at any time during the calendar year, shall report such a relationship.

Although there are some limited exceptions, filing requirements also apply to taxpayers that have direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign account(s). For example, a corporate-owned foreign account would require filings by the corporation and by the individual corporate officers with signature authority. Failure to disclose the required information to the U.S. Department of the Treasury may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties.

If you and/or your entity have a financial interest in, or signature authority over, any foreign accounts, you are responsible for providing our Firm with all the information necessary to prepare the Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (“FBAR”) required by the U.S. Department of the Treasury in order for the FBAR to be received by the Department on or before the due date of each tax year. If you have an FBAR filing requirement, the FBAR filing deadline is April 15th. However, an automatic 6-month extension is available to October 15th of each tax year.

It is mandatory to electronically file the FBAR reports using the Bank Secrecy Act (“BSA”) e-filing system for the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN”). If you would like our Firm to submit your electronic FBAR report (FinCEN Form 114) on your behalf, we must receive a signed consent form (FinCEN Form 114a) from you prior to submitting the foreign reporting form. If you do not provide our Firm with information regarding any interest you may have in a foreign account, or if we do not receive your signed authorization to file your foreign reporting form, we will not be able to prepare and file any of the required disclosure statements.

In addition, the Internal Revenue Service also requires information reporting on foreign interests or activities under applicable Internal Revenue Code sections and related regulations, and the respective IRS tax forms are due when your income tax return is due, including extensions. The IRS reporting requirements are in addition to the U.S. Department of the Treasury reporting requirements stated above. Therefore, if you have any direct or indirect foreign interests that require disclosures to the IRS, you must provide us with the information necessary to prepare the applicable IRS forms.

- Form 8938 - You are an individual or entity with ownership of foreign financial assets and meet the specified criteria;
- Form 5471 - You are an officer, director or shareholder with respect to certain foreign corporations;
- Form 5472 - You are a foreign-owned U.S. corporation or foreign corporation engaged in a U.S. trade or business;
- Form 926 - You are a U.S. transferor of property to a foreign corporation;
- Forms 3520 or 3520-A - U.S. person with an interest in a foreign trust (Forms 3520 and 3520-A); or
- Form 8865 - U.S. person with interests in a foreign partnership.

Failure to timely file the appropriate forms with the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service may result in substantial monetary penalties. By your signature below, you accept responsibility for informing us if you believe that you may have foreign reporting requirements with the U.S. Department of the Treasury and/or Internal Revenue Service and you agree to timely provide us with the information necessary to prepare the appropriate form(s). We assume no liability for penalties associated with the failure to file, or untimely filing, of any of these forms.

Other Matters

The law provides for a penalty to be imposed where a taxpayer makes a substantial understatement of their tax liability. Taxpayers may seek to avoid all or part of the penalty by showing (1) that they acted in good faith and there was reasonable cause for the understatement, (2) that the understatement was based on substantial authority, or (3) that the relevant facts affecting the item’s tax treatment were adequately disclosed on the return. You agree to advise us if you wish disclosure to be made in your returns or if you desire us to identify or perform further research with respect to any material tax issues for the purpose of ascertaining whether, in our opinion, there is “substantial authority” for the position proposed to be taken on such issue in your returns.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities or you may receive a notice requesting a response to certain issues on your tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination or inquiry, we will be available upon request to represent you or respond to such inquiry at an additional fee. Federal law has extended the attorney-client privilege to some, but not all communications between client and CPA. The privilege applies only to non-criminal tax matters that are before the IRS or brought by or against the US Government in federal court. Such communications must be made in connection with tax advice. Communications solely concerning the preparation of a tax return will not be privileged. In addition, your confidentiality privilege can be inadvertently waived if you discuss the contents of any privileged communication with a third party, such as a lending institution, a friend, or a business associate. We recommend that you contact us before releasing any privileged information to a third party.

If we are asked to disclose any privileged communication, unless we are required to disclose the communication by law, we will not provide such disclosure until you have had an opportunity to argue that the communication is privileged. You agree to pay any and all reasonable expenses that we incur, including legal fees, that are a result of attempts to protect any communication as privileged. Our Firm is in compliance with, and will abide by, Massachusetts Data Privacy Law 201 CMR 17.00. It is our policy to retain engagement documentation for a period of seven years, after which time we will commence the process of destroying the contents of our engagement files. To the extent we accumulate any of your original records during the engagement, those documents will be returned to you promptly upon completion of the engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect your records for possible future use, including potential examination by any government or regulatory agencies.

We are pleased to have you as a client and look forward to many more years of a mutually satisfying relationship. We believe that this letter would accurately summarize the significant terms of our engagement. If you have any questions, please let us know.

If you agree with the terms of our engagement as described in this letter, please sign below and return it to us along with your 2018 tax information. However, under no circumstances shall we sign a completed tax return or prepare an extension until we receive from you this signed engagement letter.
